

Dear Parents

I hope you all had a good half term, with plenty of time for rest and relaxation. It is difficult to believe that we are already half way through this academic year and even more amazing when we also realise that it is only five weeks until Easter!

Parent consultation evenings will all be held the week after next – please ensure that you all sign up for an appointment with your class teacher(s). At this point in the academic year it is extremely valuable for the teachers to have a chance to explain how your child is progressing towards their goals and what we can all do to help them make the maximum progress possible.

WORLD BOOK DAY – THURSDAY 1ST MARCH

This annual event continues this year – all the children will be receiving their £1 book voucher on the day but I am also hoping that we will have enough donations of second hand books for every child to take home a free book to keep. Please send in any books that will be suitable for this from Monday (26th February)

JAZZ PERFORMANCE AND WORKSHOP

Mrs Quick has arranged for the ambassadors from the Devon Youth Jazz Orchestra to come to school to perform for the children next Friday. There will be a performance for all children to watch followed by some workshops for the older pupils. It will be lovely for the children to be able to experience good quality, live music and I am looking forward to watching it myself!

VISION SCREENING

Children in the Reception Year will have had a letter regarding the upcoming vision screening check. This will take place on Wednesday 7th March – if your child is in the Reception Year and you have not received a letter, please collect one from the office.
